

Parents as Leaders

A FREE TRAINING FOR PARENTS OF CHILDREN WITH DISABILITIES

Tuesday, November 4, 2014 • 9:00 am - 2:30 pm
Registration and Continental Breakfast: 8:00 am - 9:00 am

Koury Convention Center
3121 High Point Road • Greensboro, NC

Every Parent Can Be a Leader. Have you ever wondered how you can help your school improve? Whether you consider yourself a “leader” or not, your experiences and your knowledge as a parent of a child receiving special education services are unique and important. Activities in this training will help support you in your role as a parent, volunteer, school improvement team member, advisory council member or any of the roles you play. This training will help you gain the knowledge and skills needed to become more actively involved in helping improve educational outcomes and services for children with disabilities.

YOU can make a difference ...

Join us and learn about some of the effective education practices happening in North Carolina and how you can become a collaborative leader

Space is limited - Call today!

NC's Parent Training & Information Center

907 Barra Row, Suites 102/103

Davidson, NC 28036 800-962-6817 | www.ecac-parentcenter.org

What else do you need to know:

To register or for more information, directions, or if you have special needs, please contact Rita Stokes, ECAC office at 1-800-962-6817, ext 339 toll free

All materials, continental breakfast and lunch will be provided
AT NO COST!!

Seating is limited!

Register by: October 30th

~ Funding for this program is provided through the North Carolina State Improvement Project, North Carolina Department of Public Instruction, Exceptional Children Division ~